Hello, and welcome to the Gatehouse Awards Test of English spoken exam.

The exam date is (insert the full date). The time is (insert the time).

The exam level is C2, and we are using version (insert version reference).

My name is (insert your name), and I will be your Examiner today. (please introduce any other people if present, e.g. the observer)

(insert the first candidate's first name), you are Candidate A. Please tell us your full name (candidate speaks) Thank you.

(insert the second candidate's first name), you are Candidate B. Please tell us your full name. (candidate speaks) Thank you.

	CANDIDATE A	CANDIDATE B
INTRO	OK, let's start. (insert name) , please tell me something interesting about yourself. (candidate speaks for up to 30 seconds) Thank you.	(insert name) , please tell me something interesting about yourself. (candidate speaks for up to 30 seconds) Thank you.
Part 1	In the first part of the exam, I'll show you each a picture. I will then ask you a question about a topic related to the picture. You will need to talk about that topic for about two minutes.
	Candidate A We will start with Candidate A, (insert name) . Here is your picture. (start sharing the visual prompts for Part 1 Candidate A at this point) Can you see the picture? (wait for confirmation) Think about parties and celebrations. What makes for a successful celebration? You have a few seconds to think about your answer, then I will ask you the question again. OK, (insert name) , please tell me, what makes for a successful celebration? (candidate speaks for up to 2 mins – use additional questions provided below if needed) Thank you.	Candidate B (insert name) , here is your picture. (start sharing the visual prompts for Part 1 Candidate B at this point) Can you see the picture? (wait for confirmation) Think about relationships, for example with family members, friends, or work colleagues. What helps to create a good relationship? You have a few seconds to think about your answer, then I will ask you the question again. Now, (insert name) , what helps to create a good relationship? (candidate speaks for up to 2 mins – use additional questions provided below if needed) Thank you.
	ADDITIONAL ELICITATION QUESTIONS IN PART 1 (use some of the questions if the candidate doesn't speak for the expected amount of time): Why do you think so? Is there anything else you'd like to say? Can you tell me more about (insert something candidate has already mentioned) ?

Part 2

Now, we are going to start part 2, which is a conversation. Look at all the pictures. (please share the visual prompts for Part 2 and allow the candidates a few seconds to look at the pictures) Can you both see the pictures? (wait for confirmation from both candidates) I'd like you to imagine the pictures have been taken for a campaign to encourage people to be more physically active. Talk together about how each of the pictures might be used as part of the campaign. Then, choose one for the front cover of the campaign brochure.

You have a few seconds to look at the pictures first, and then you will need to have a conversation for about 5 minutes.

OK, please start. Talk together about how each of the pictures might be used as part of the campaign to encourage physical activity. Then, choose one for the front cover of the campaign brochure. (Candidates should speak together for about 5 minutes – if they don't, use additional questions provided below to prompt them to say more)

Thank you. This is the end of the exam.

SWITCH OFF THE AUDIO RECORDER.

ADDITIONAL GUIDANCE IN PART 2

- Make sure that both candidates receive equal opportunity to speak.
- The candidates should talk together rather than present two individual long responses. You can remind them by saying: Please remember this is a conversation – you need to talk together.
- It's OK if the conversation between the two candidates moves slightly away from the topic specified by the task – as long as it is still linked to the main question.
- Keep your own input to the minimum. Only intervene in the above situations, or if the candidates run out of things to say significantly before the end of the time limit.

ADDITIONAL ELICITATION QUESTIONS IN PART 2 (use some of the questions if the candidates don't speak for the expected amount of time):

What else do you think? / There is more time for you to talk – please continue. / It was interesting what you said about (insert something candidates mentioned earlier) – please tell me more about that. What about (insert the description of one of the images provided)
