Section 1: Qualification Overview

1.1 Introduction: About the Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Test of Interactive English) Qualifications

“ESOL International Qualifications are designed for Candidates who are not native speakers of English and who wish to achieve a high quality, internationally recognised qualification in English that is available and recognised worldwide and at the highest level (RQF Level 3 / CEFR C2). They are suitable for Candidates who are preparing for entry to higher education or professional employment in the UK or elsewhere. ESOL International qualifications are designed to reference the descriptions of language proficiency in the Common European Framework Reference for Languages (CEFR). The levels in the CEFR have been mapped to the levels in the Regulated Qualifications Framework for England, Wales and Northern Ireland (see Pathways to Proficiency – the alignment of language proficiency scales for assessing competence in English Language DFES / QCA, 2003).” (Criteria for English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Qualifications, Ofqual, 2011).

This specification covers all levels of the suite of Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Test of Interactive English) qualifications: Entry Level 1 (CEFR level A1), Entry Level 2 (CEFR level A2), Entry Level 3 (CEFR level B1), Level 1 (CEFR level B2), Level 2 (CEFR C1) and Level 3 (CEFR C2).

The ESOL International (Test of Interactive English) is an integrated four skills test of language ability. The qualifications each consist of two units in Speaking and Writing at each level, within which Reading and Listening skills are embedded.

For details of other Gatehouse Awards ESOL International qualifications, there are separate Qualification Specifications available.

This qualification is available within the United Kingdom and overseas and is only offered in English.

The qualifications are regulated by the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulations (Ofqual) in England and are part of the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF). All versions of the qualifications are listed on the Register of Regulated Qualifications which is operated by Ofqual at <http://register.ofqual.gov.uk/Qualification>.

The information contained within this document must be made available by Centres to all members of staff involved with the administration, conduct and delivery of Gatehouse Awards ESOL International (Test of Interactive English) qualifications. In addition, essential policies, procedures and forms can be found on the Gatehouse Awards website: www.gatehouseawards.org

1.3 Qualification Aims and Objectives

The aim of these qualifications is to demonstrate a Candidate's ability to communicate using the English language across CEFR levels A1 (Entry Level 1) to C2 (Level 3).

The qualifications assess the Candidate's competency in speaking, listening, reading and writing at each level. Language skills are assessed interactively, via two externally set examination papers.

The overall objective is to provide a Candidate with a qualification that they can use to prepare for higher education or employment where the ability to speak, write and understand verbal and written English is required.

The qualification has been designed to reflect the four domains as specified by CEFR: the public domain, the personal domain, the educational domain and the occupational domain.

- The public domain refers to everything connected with ordinary social interaction, for instance; business and administrative bodies; public services; cultural and leisure activities of a public nature; relations with the media, etc.
- The personal domain comprises family relations and individual social practices.
- The occupational domain refers to everything concerned with a person's activities and relations in the exercise of his or her occupation.
- The educational domain is concerned with the learning/training context (generally of an institutional nature) where the aim is to acquire specific knowledge or skills.

(CEFR available: http://www.coe.int/t/dg4/linguistic/Source/Framework_EN.pdf)

The Test of Interactive English qualifications view the receptive (reading and listening) skills as supporting or underlying the productive (speaking and writing) skills, in order to reflect language as it naturally occurs in real life usage.

1.3 Features of the Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English Qualifications

The Test of Interactive English is an integrated four skills test of language ability. The approach taken in the Test of Interactive English is for the Candidate to take responsibility for selecting appropriate materials for half the test, while comparability of performance is maintained by Candidates' performing standardised tasks for the other half of the test.

The Test of Interactive English is designed to promote:

- The development of learner autonomy
- Practical and productive assessment preparation in a meaningful learning environment
- Learner choice in language development and assessment
- The raising of self-awareness and individual reflection on the learning process
- The development and ownership of real-life language skills
- Authentic assessment of Candidates' proficiency

The Test of Interactive English provides Candidates with an opportunity to work to their strengths, to demonstrate their skills and knowledge via interaction with other language users:

- In an integrated four-skills approach to assessment
- Requiring task-based preparation by the Candidate
- Using materials relevant to the Candidate's life and personal interests
- Providing a clear structure to classroom / teacher-led examination preparation

Within all Gatehouse Awards ESOL International qualifications:

- There is a clear relationship between CEFR descriptors and the qualification contents and assessment tasks for each unit at all levels
- Full guidance is given to Centres, teachers and Candidates in the form of unit standards, unit amplification, mark schemes, and clear Key Language items mapped to each skill at each level
- All assessments at all levels are produced by Gatehouse Awards
- Assessments are externally assessed and moderated by Gatehouse Awards' experienced and supportive examiners and moderators
- Assessments can be conducted at times that are suitable to Centres and Candidates – there are no 'assessment windows'
- Assessments are available in paper format and online

1.4 Intended Audience and Entry Requirements

The Test of Interactive English qualifications test the language skills of people whose first language is not English and who:

- Attend an English language course either in the UK or overseas; or
- Are learning English as part of their school or college curriculum; or
- Need English for their everyday or working life; or
- Require an externally recognised certification of their level of proficiency in English; or
- Are attending courses over a period of time and require a series of graded examinations which provide steps towards proficiency; or
- Attend short courses in English, for example summer schools.

The Test of Interactive English examinations are designed to complement general English language courses, and are appropriate for anyone aged 14 or above from all educational backgrounds.

There are no prior learning requirements for these qualifications. However, Centres are expected to ensure that the qualification they offer to their Candidates is appropriate to their age, ability and needs. For example, Centres should not offer a Candidate a qualification that is the same level as a similar English language qualification they have already attained.

1.5 Relationship to Other Qualifications & Progression Opportunities

The qualifications are designed so that Candidates can progress from one level to the next as their skills improve. Progression from each level within this suite of ESOL International qualifications may include further English language courses at the next level.

Progression from Level 1 (B2) achievement may include further English language courses to Levels 2 (C1) or Level 3 (C2), or onto a range of vocational qualifications at Levels 1, 2 and above.

Progression from Level 2 (C1) achievement may include further English language courses to Level 3 (C2), or onto a range of vocational qualifications at Levels 2, 3 and Higher Education.

Progression from Level 3 (C2) achievement may include a range of vocational qualifications at higher levels, including Higher Education.

1.6 Qualification Structure and Overview

The Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications are listed on the Ofqual Register of Qualifications within the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).

The Test of Interactive English qualifications are designed to reference the descriptors of language proficiency in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). The levels in the CEFR have been mapped to the levels in the RQF for England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

Equivalent Levels: RQF and CEFR

Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) Level	Equivalent RQF Level
A1	Entry Level 1
A2	Entry Level 2
B1	Entry Level 3
B2	Level 1
C1	Level 2
C2	Level 3

Each qualification consists of two mandatory units at the corresponding level:

- Spoken Test of Interactive English
- Written Test of Interactive English

The Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications are unitised to allow Candidates to re-take examinations for individual elements of the qualification. Each unit within each qualification is weighted equally.

Each qualification, at each level, is assessed via two externally assessed examinations. Two versions of the Test of Interactive English are available:

- Entry Level (A1 – B1) Spoken Test of Interactive English (Spoken TIE)
- Entry Level (A1 – B1) Written Test of Interactive English (Written TIE)

And

- Levels 1, 2 and 3 (B2 – C2) Spoken Test of Interactive English (Spoken TIE)
- Levels 1, 2 and 3 (B2 – C2) Written Test of Interactive English (Written TIE)

Candidates will achieve the unit at the level corresponding to the overall test grade they achieve in the examinations.

Candidates not fulfilling the criteria at Level 1 (B2) will have their performance re-assessed against Entry Level 3 (B1) criteria.

In order to achieve a Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualification, Candidates must complete the mandatory pre-examination preparation tasks (see Section 3 below) and achieve one Spoken Test of Interactive English and one Written Test of Interactive English unit.

1.9 Model of Assessment

The Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications are externally assessed via examination papers created and issued by Gatehouse Awards, and externally moderated by Gatehouse Awards.

Examinations in the UK are conducted by the Centre and are audio recorded. Gatehouse Awards also recommends that Centres video record the examinations wherever possible (please note, video recording may not be possible for Candidates who are under 18 years of age for legal reasons, in which case the audio recording alone will be relied upon). All Candidate scripts and audio-recordings are sent to Gatehouse Awards securely for assessment and moderation. Video recordings should be retained by the Centre and made available to GA upon request.

Internationally, the examinations may be delivered by Gatehouse Awards Representatives or by Centre staff. Sessions may also be held at independent venues. Arrangements will vary from country to country. Please contact Gatehouse Awards for information about the arrangements in specific countries.

All assessment decisions will be made by external examiners, who are experienced and qualified teachers and examiners of English (English as a Foreign Language and/or English for Speakers of Other Languages).

1.10 Rules of Combination

In order to achieve a Gatehouse Awards Certificate in Test of Interactive English qualification, Candidates must achieve one Spoken Test of Interactive English unit and one Written Test of Interactive English unit. Where Candidates achieve one unit at a lower level, the following rules will apply:

Half-level difference between the Spoken and Written Exam overall grades is automatically rounded up.

Example: SP: C1+, WR: C2

Qualification awarded: C2

One level difference or higher is rounded up to the middle level provided that in one of the two exam parts the candidate shows emerging or consolidating skills of the higher level.

Example: SP: C2, WR: B2+ (candidate shows established skills at B2 level and emerging skills at the C1 level)

Qualification Awarded: C1

One level difference or higher is rounded down provided that in one of the two exam parts the candidate shows established skills of the lower level and no sign of emerging skills at the next higher level

Example: SP: C2, WR: B2 (candidate shows established skills at B2 level and no sign of emerging skills at a higher level, i.e., C1)

Qualification Awarded: B2

The certificate will clearly indicate the units which have been achieved.

No further rules of combination will apply.

The Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications are mapped to the Common European Framework of Reference. The mapping is reflected in the Unit Specifications and the marking guidance for the qualifications.

1.12 Recognition of Prior Learning and Transfer of Credits

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) is a method of assessing whether a learner’s previous experience and achievements meet the standard requirements of a Gatehouse Awards Unit or Units, prior to the Candidate taking the assessment for the qualification, or part of the qualification, they are registered for.

Any prior learning must be relevant to the knowledge, skills and understanding which will be assessed as part of that qualification, and Gatehouse Awards will subsequently amend the requirements which a Candidate must have satisfied before they are assessed as eligible to be awarded the qualification. As the Test of Interactive English qualifications are not credit-bearing, no transfer of credits is permissible.

1.13 Language of Assessment

These qualifications are available in the English language only.

Gatehouse Awards is committed to using English which is plain, clear, free from bias and appropriate to Candidates who are not native English users.

1.14 Use of Dictionaries

Monolingual (English-English) dictionaries are permitted for the Written Test of Interactive English examination only.

Bi-lingual (translation) dictionaries are not permitted.

Electronic dictionaries or other electronic resources are not permitted.

1.15 Grading

The Entry Level (A1-B1) examinations allow Candidates to demonstrate their skills across the three Entry levels. Performance in each examination is graded to correspond to the overall test grades A1, A2 or B1.

Where the Candidate has demonstrated that their skills at the level are fully established across all criteria at the level, or there is clear indication that skills at the level above may be emerging, but not yet consolidated, a grade of A1+, A2+ or B1+ may be given.

The Level 1, 2 and 3 (B2-C2) examinations allow Candidates to demonstrate their skills across the three levels. Performance in each examination is graded to correspond to the test grades B2, C1, or C2.

Where the Candidate has demonstrated that skills are fully established across all criteria at the level and there is a clear indication that skills at the level above may be emerging, but not yet consolidated, a grade of B2+ or C1+ may be given.

At C2 level, exceptional performance at this level may lead to the grade of C2+.

Successful Candidates are awarded the qualification at the level they have achieved. Candidates who do not fulfil the requirements of the lowest level of attainment in the examinations will not be awarded a qualification.

Candidates who do not fulfil the minimum requirements of the examinations will be issued with a 'fail' result and may continue to work towards achievement by undertaking further study to enable them to meet the minimum required standard.

Candidates who achieve the minimum standard in one examination and a fail grade (or DNF result) in the second examination are entitled to re-sit the examination which they failed, for an additional fee.

In each case, the qualification will be awarded at the lowest level achieved across the two units.

1.16 Fall-back Awards

Candidates entered for a Level 1+ (B2-C2) examination session who do not meet the required minimum standard of B2, i.e. are assessed as 'fail' against the Level 1 (B2) criteria, will be automatically re-assessed at Entry Level 3 (B1) and can therefore be eligible to be awarded an Entry Level 3 (B1) qualification.

Please note, Candidates entered for an Entry Level (A1-B1) examination session cannot be awarded a qualification at any level higher than Entry Level 3 (B1).

Examples:

Learner's anticipated outcome	Examination Taken	Spoken Achievement	Written Achievement	Qualification Awarded
C2	B2-C2	C2	C1	C1
C2	B2-C2	B2	B2	B2
C1	B2-C2	C2+	C2	C2
B2	B2-C2	B2	Fail (Re-assessed as B1)	B1
B1	A1-B1	B1	A2	A2
B1	A1-B1	A2	A1+	A2
A2	A1-A2	A2+	A1	A1
A1	A1-B1	Fail	A1	None

1.17 Qualification Availability

These qualifications are offered in the UK and internationally by Approved Gatehouse Awards Centres and/or Representatives, which hold qualification approval from Gatehouse Awards to offer Test of Interactive English qualifications.

Assessments are available both in paper based and online format.

If your organisation is not currently a recognised Gatehouse Awards Centre, or you do not have approval to offer the Test of Interactive English qualifications, please contact us for details of how to apply.

Section 2. Centre Requirements and Quality Assurance Arrangements

2.1 Introduction to Centre Requirements and Quality Assurance Arrangements

These qualifications are offered to Centres and Candidates in the UK and across the world. In some locations, examination sessions are organised and conducted directly by Gatehouse Awards or its Representatives. Preparation Centres, schools and colleges may book their examination session to be held on their own premises and may refer to themselves as Examination Centres. The premises must meet the minimum requirements outlined in 2.2 Venue Requirements, below.

Gatehouse Awards also offers the Test of Interactive English at its own premises or at independent venues. Candidates may book directly with Gatehouse Awards or a Gatehouse Awards Representative in order to take the test. Schools, colleges or other preparation Centres may register a Candidate for an examination session at an independent venue on the Candidate's behalf.

Where Gatehouse Awards makes this available, individual organisations may also wish to seek direct Centre Approval for the qualifications. Centres wishing to offer Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications as an Approved Centre will be responsible for, under an enforceable Centre Agreement, the registering of Candidates, provision of suitable premises, maintaining the security of the examination materials and the recruitment and nomination of an Examinations Officer, Interlocutor(s), Invigilator(s) and relevant administrative staff, who will be responsible for the conduct of the examination sessions and subsequently returning Candidate's scripts and audio recordings to Gatehouse Awards for assessment. Approved Centres must ensure that they have the following resources in place.

2.2 Staff Requirements

Teaching Staff

Gatehouse Awards recommend that staff employed as Teachers are able to demonstrate the following:

- must be a native English speaker or have reached near-native competence
- must hold a recognised teaching qualification in TEFL, TESOL or equivalent
- must meet any licence-to-practice requirements, where these are applicable
- must have recent experience of teaching English for Speakers of Other Languages or English as a Foreign Language.

Interlocutors and Invigilation Staff

Where the examination sessions are conducted by Centre staff, Centres must nominate an Interlocutor and an Invigilator. This may be the same person, but should not be the Candidate's teacher, relative, or anyone else from the Centre who is known personally to the Candidate other than via the Centre's professional operations (please refer to the Gatehouse Awards Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedure for more information).

The Interlocutor is the member of staff who will conduct the Spoken Interactive English unit examination at all levels.

The Invigilator is the member of staff who will oversee the Written Interactive English unit examination at all levels.

Interlocutors and Invigilators should refer to the Interlocutor and Invigilator's Handbook for further details about their role and the conduct of the examination session.

It is important to note that the Test of Interactive English examinations are marked by Examiners appointed and trained by Gatehouse Awards. Centre staff should therefore NOT refer to themselves as examiners, markers or assessors of these qualifications.

Centres must ensure that any all personnel employed in the roles of Interlocutor and Invigilator meet the Gatehouse Awards guidelines (see below) and that their details are provided to Gatehouse Awards upon request. Should any changes to the personnel involved with the direct delivery of the exams occur, the Centre must inform Gatehouse Awards immediately using a Centre Update Form.

Gatehouse Awards recognises that a high-level English teaching qualification does not automatically qualify someone to be a good Interlocutor and as there are no specific qualifications available for Interlocutors, Gatehouse Awards does not stipulate minimum qualification levels for such staff. Gatehouse Awards have, however, adopted the following guidelines:

The Interlocutor:

- must be a native English speaker or have reached near-native competence.
- must be able to use English to the level that allows the Candidate to fulfil all the tasks in the examination.
- should NOT be the Candidate's own English language teacher.

Centres are responsible for ensuring that all Interlocutors and Invigilators maintain the standards required by Gatehouse Awards. Failure to do so may affect Centre or Qualification Approval status.

Gatehouse Awards will ensure that Interlocutors and Invigilators involved in examination delivery at independent venues meet the above requirements.

General

Centres must ensure that they hold up-to-date and detailed information about the staff involved with the delivery, assessment and internal moderation of these qualifications and must make records available to Gatehouse Awards upon request. The information Gatehouse Awards expects Centres to hold for each member of staff includes:

- a current up to date CV
- copies of relevant qualification certificates
- a relevant and up to date CPD (Continuous Professional Development) Record
- a completed Conflict of Interest declaration (where applicable)

Centres must also ensure that they have the management and administrative arrangements in place which are suitable to support the registration, qualification delivery and examination of Candidates.

2.3 Venue Requirements

Centres must ensure that a suitable examination room is provided which is appropriate and does not disadvantage or advantage Candidates in any way. A quiet room, which is adequately heated, with desks, chairs and the required equipment must be available in order to conduct the Test of Interactive English examinations.

The examination room must be large enough to seat the number of Candidates registered for the examination session, i.e. suitable to seat two or three Candidates and the Interlocutor in the Spoken Test of Interactive English examination and maintaining a minimum distance of 1.25 metres between each Candidate in the Written Test of Interactive English examination.

Centres must also ensure that a suitable waiting area is provided for Candidates to be seated prior to their examinations. This waiting area should be supervised at all times and Candidates should not re-enter this waiting area after their examinations. This stipulation is in order to minimise the potential for Candidate collusion, cheating or other forms of malpractice.

Centres must also ensure that the premises have suitable access, in line with Disability Discrimination and Diversity & Equality law and regulations and any other local laws and regulations which apply.

Gatehouse Awards will ensure that premises used as independent venues for examination delivery meet the above requirements.

Further details are contained within the document Regulations for Conducting Controlled Examinations.

2.4 Equipment Requirements

Centres must ensure that the following equipment / resources are available:

- IT facilities to enable access to the Gatehouse Awards website
- Access to email
- Scanner and printer / photocopier
- Digital audio recorder
- Sufficient IT resources to enable back up of all audio recording of the Speaking examinations for a minimum period of 2 years after the examination date.

Further details are contained within the document Regulations for Conducting Controlled Examinations.

2.5 Teaching and Learning Requirements

Some preparation work is mandatory prior to taking the Test of Interactive English examination (see Section 3 below), therefore Gatehouse Awards recommends that Candidates should undertake a programme of study under the guidance of an experienced and qualified English teacher prior to registering for their examination. We recommend choosing tuition in a school or college where the teachers are familiar with the requirements of the Test of Interactive English. However, this is not mandatory and Candidates may choose to complete an online course or prepare by independent study, should these alternatives better suit the Candidate's personal circumstances. The information provided in this Qualification Specification can be used by any Candidate to prepare for the examination independently.

The level a Candidate is entered for should be appropriate to their ability. Gatehouse Awards recommends that Centres have a short pre-assessment with potential Candidates before determining whether or not it is appropriate to enrol them onto a course of study and/or register them for a particular level examination session.

Where Centres do offer English language courses leading to the qualifications, these can be full-time, part-time, evenings only, short courses, or by distance/online learning as deemed appropriate in order to meet their learners' needs.

Regardless of the method of learning, where any courses are offered, Centres must ensure that Candidates have suitable access to the Centre, relevant Centre staff and any other resources including ESOL International specialist staff and learning materials.

Learning programmes and teaching approaches should take into account some or all of the following:

- learners' short term goals and the contexts in which they need to use English
- learners' educational and employment aspirations
- learners' wider need for skills such as IT, study skills, job-search or specific subject skills
- the local community context
- techniques for teaching mixed-level groups and groups of learners with mixed educational backgrounds, where appropriate
- techniques for teaching learners whose listening and speaking skills are higher or lower than their reading/writing skills ('spiky profiles' or 'jagged profiles'), where appropriate
- communicative language teaching, including ways of working with learners who do not share a language with the teacher
- cross-cultural approaches which draw on learners' knowledge of other languages and/or cultures
- strategies for tackling learning difficulties such as dyslexia
- the need to move forward towards independence
- the effects of any personal circumstances on a Candidate's level of motivation and style of learning.

2.6 Requirements for Teaching and Learning Resources

Gatehouse Awards does not prescribe the use of a set course book, workbook or recorded materials for the Test of Interactive English qualifications but expects that Centres providing English language courses should use relevant and up-to-date, high quality teaching materials which allow Candidates to apply their learning to real events and activities in everyday life, based upon their own experience.

There should be an emphasis upon providing learning activities which involve practical participation in language skills, in contexts relevant to the Candidate's life and personal interests, where language skills can be developed following an integrated skills development approach.

Centres should develop an approach to teaching and learning that supports the practical and interactive nature of the Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications.

2.7 Quality Assurance Requirements

Gatehouse Awards is committed to providing a high level of quality assurance for the Test of Interactive English qualifications, including a thorough Centre and qualification approval process, external assessment and moderation and visits to Centres to conduct quality assurance monitoring and conduct observations of examination sessions.

Visits to Centres

External Quality Assurance activities will involve observations of examination sessions, discussions with Centre staff and, where appropriate, with Candidates, focussing on:

- checking that the management of the Centre and the arrangements relating to the qualifications are sufficient
- checking that both staff and physical resources to support the delivery of the qualifications are sufficient
- ensuring that the Centre has appropriate policies and procedures in place
- checking that security arrangements are implemented to ensure the security of the assessment materials
- the invigilation and interlocation of the assessments and any internal quality assurance arrangements, such as internal staff training and continuing professional development
- administrative arrangements
- ensuring that any actions resulting from any other quality assurance activity have been carried out by the Centre

Through the above activities, Gatehouse Awards will provide the Centre with support, advice and guidance relating to the delivery, assessment and quality assurance of the qualifications.

Centres may request additional support visits, for which there may be an additional charge.

Section 3: Examination Format & Required Preparation

3.1 The Choice of Examination

The Test of Interactive English consists of two examinations, the Spoken Test of Interactive English and Written Test of Interactive English.

Candidates are expected to take both examinations on the same day.

- Candidates undertaking a course of study at Entry Level 1, 2 or 3 (A1, A2 or B1) will be expected to register to take the Spoken and Written Test of Interactive English examinations at A1-B1 level.
- Candidates undertaking a course of study at Levels, 1, 2 or 3 (B2, C1 or C2) will be expected to register to take the Spoken and Written Test of Interactive English examinations at B2-C2 level.

3.2 Preparation for the Test of Interactive English

Candidates must undertake the mandatory preparation for the examinations, which involve the preparation of standard, pre-specified tasks. These tasks form the framework within which Candidates select their own topics and materials and decide how they develop each task, preferably under guidance from a Centre or their own teacher.

Important note: Candidates should not select the same investigation subject, book or news story as other Learners in the group. The preparatory work for TIE examination should be undertaken individually, under the guidance of the teacher, and the choices of the subjects reflect the Candidate's personal interests.

In preparation for the examination, at all levels, Candidates are required to:

- keep a logbook, in which they record information about the preparation they have undertaken.
- carry out an investigation (or mini project) on a topic of interest, through reading and/or listening to various sources to gather information.
- read a book/graded reader (A1-B1 only) in English in order to be able to speak or write about it.

In addition to the above, in order to prepare for the examination at B2, C1 or C2 levels, Candidates are required to follow a news story through reading and/or listening to various sources to gather information in order to be able to speak or write about it.

3.2.1 The Logbook

Candidates must bring their logbook with them to the examination session. This is a folder in which Candidates record the information about the preparation they have undertaken. They should bring their logbook into the TIE examination.

The logbook may be hand-written or typed. The logbook is NOT assessed or awarded a grade; however, the logbook must be presented to the Interlocutor in order for the Candidate to fulfil the examination requirements.

For online sessions candidates must upload their logbook to the TIE exam app.

A Candidate who does not present a logbook for the the TIE examination will be automatically awarded a DNF (Did Not Fulfil requirements) grade.

3.2.2 The Investigation

The investigation, or mini-project, is an essential component of the Spoken TIE examination at all levels.

The investigation should be on a topic selected by the Candidate and they should bring their project with them to the examination sessions (in the logbook). The project can be handwritten or typed and must be supported by visuals. The Candidate must be prepared to present their findings and answer questions about the topic.

Candidates are NOT assessed on the accuracy of the content of their investigation.

A Candidate who does not present an investigation for the Spoken TIE will be automatically awarded a DNF (Did Not Fulfil requirements) grade.

3.2.3 The Book

The book is an essential component of both the Spoken TIE at all levels and the Written TIE examinations at Levels 1, 2 and 3.

Candidates should select and read a book in preparation for the examination session. The book must be in English and a whole class should not work on the same book. The Candidate must be prepared to present the book and answer questions about the book they have read.

At A1-B1 levels, the Candidate will be expected to speak about the book in the Spoken TIE examination.

At B2-C2 levels, the Candidate will be expected to write, and possibly speak about the book. The Candidate will be informed on the day of the examinations.

Candidates may choose either a work of fiction or non-fiction and these can be contemporaneous or classic literary works, a Graded Reader, operational manuals, comic books etc. English course books or magazines are not permitted.

For Candidates entering the A1-B1 TIE examinations, a Graded Reader at the target level may be appropriate.

A Candidate who does not present a book they have read for the examination session will be automatically awarded a DNF (Did Not Fulfil requirements) grade.

3.2.4. The News Story (B2-C2 only)

The News Story is an essential component of both the Spoken TIE and the Written TIE examinations at Levels B2 – C2.

Candidates should select and follow a news story from at least two different media sources, such as newspapers, the internet, television or a magazine, and they should bring their news story with them to the examination sessions (in the logbook). The news story must not be more than 12 months old at the date of the examination. The Candidate must be prepared to present and answer questions about their news story.

The Candidate will be expected to write, and possibly speak about the news story. The Candidate will be informed on the day of the examinations.

A Candidate who does not present a news story for the examination session, or presents a news story more than 12 months old, will be automatically awarded a DNF (Did Not Fulfil requirements) grade.

Preparation Guidance for Teachers and Candidates

At all levels, this is the first step of the Spoken TIE examination and gives time for the Candidates to relax and to get to know each other and the Interlocutor.

Candidates should be encouraged to practice talking with others in conversation in a natural way and be ready to answer questions about themselves and their interests.

Topics at all levels are listed in Section 5: Unit Specification.

Preparation Guidance for Teachers and Candidates

- What materials are needed?

The Candidate needs to prepare an investigation, or mini-project, on a topic of personal interest. Teachers should provide guidance to Candidates about topics appropriate for the level, using the tables in Section 5: Unit Specification, below.

The investigation will consist of a title, one or more visuals and some text about the topic. Teachers may guide Candidates to relevant sources of information about the topic of the investigation, where Candidates will be reading and/or listening.

- How can Candidates prepare the investigation in class?

The Candidate may choose any topic he/she prefers. Course books which have topic-based units may be useful to inspire Candidates to choose. Teachers can ask Candidates to prepare their project using ideas, vocabulary, etc. covered in the course of study, according to the students' interests, e.g. the topic 'Sports' may be covered in class, which could lead to individual Candidates choosing topics such as 'Ronaldo', 'Formula 1', 'Handball', etc.

- How can Candidates practise for the investigation in class?

The Candidate needs to be able to present his/her project for at least two minutes and then answer the Interlocutor and co-Candidate's questions. They should also be able to ask at least one question to his/her partner about his/her project.

In class, the Candidates can practice presenting their investigations, asking questions and discuss each other's projects. If this procedure is followed, there is no need for extra time to prepare and practise the projects and Candidates are provided with extra opportunities for interactive communication.

- Good Practice

Teachers may start to prepare Candidates from the beginning of their course of study by incorporating project work into the classwork and homework, practising presentations and discussions throughout the programme. In this way, Candidates may have many projects to choose from and are more motivated to talk about a topic which they have found interesting.

- What should be avoided?

Teachers should not prepare investigations/projects to provide to Candidates ready-made. Although the projects are not assessed (the Candidates' presentation and performance is assessed), the Candidates should prepare their projects independently.

Suitable subject areas to consider in selecting a topic for the project for Candidates at each level can be found in Section 5: Unit Specification, below.

3.4.3 Presentation of News Story

The News Story (Spoken and Written TIE B2-C2 only)
Task	Presentation / discussion on a news story (B2-C2 Spoken TIE only) and Writing about the news story (B2-C2 Written TIE only)
Task type	Prepared (Candidates have followed a news story of their choice, using at least two media sources, e.g. newspaper and the internet).
Task description	Candidates must be able to talk about the news story for at least 2 minutes and then answer the Interlocutor's questions. The other Candidate is asked to listen, comment and ask at least two questions of their own. Candidates are also expected to be able to write about the news story in the Written TIE.
Materials	Candidates' news stories, recorded in the logbook.
Sample questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why do you find this news article interesting? • What made you read this news article? • What is the most important message from this article? • Why do you think others should read this article?

Preparation Guidance for Teachers and Candidates

- What materials are needed?

Each Candidate must read a recent news story of their choice (no more than 12 months old). Sources may include newspaper reports (from local or national newspapers), magazine articles, online news sites, etc.

- How can Candidates prepare for the examination with their news story in class?

Candidates should practice presenting their news story to their teacher and others in the class and practice speaking and writing about it, alongside listening to other Candidates practising their own presentations, in order to comment on and ask the other Candidates a number of questions. Candidates should be encouraged to practice writing the answers to written questions from other Candidates and the teacher.

Candidates choosing a topical news story may also use visual news, such as that online or on television, where this can be accessed in English, e.g. BBC news, CNN news, Euronews. Candidates may find audio / visual versions of the news story useful to listen to or watch and this can be encouraged. Listening to audios or watching TV news in English about the news story may encourage and enable some Candidates to choose a news story to read that is above their level. Please note, this does not exempt them from reading the news story. Candidates are not assessed on the accuracy of their knowledge of the news story content, nor on their opinions; they are assessed on how well they use their language skills in the news story tasks.

- How can Candidates practise with their news story in class?

Candidates need to practice presenting their news story and answering questions about it. They should therefore listen to other Candidates practising their news story presentations and practice asking questions. Presentations of the news story are expected to last for approximately two minutes.

Candidates may cover a range of relevant content in their presentation, such as the sources they have used, the story itself, who has been affected by the story, how the story has been presented in the media etc.

- Good practice

Candidates should be encouraged to consider reading the news as a 'reading for pleasure' activity and encouraged to choose a news story appropriate to their age and interests. Teachers may start to prepare Candidates from the beginning of their course of study by incorporating listening to the news, reading about topical issues or current affairs and helping to prepare Candidates in how to 'follow' a news story, where discussion can evolve as news stories develop in the media. Reading magazines and newspapers can be integrated into classwork and homework. In this way, Candidates may have many news stories to choose from and are more motivated to talk about a news story they have followed with interest.

- What should be avoided?

Candidates and teachers should be reminded that the examinations are taken with Candidates in pairs and the Candidates may not know each other. They should therefore be mindful to choose an appropriate news story which does not contain sensitive images, events or content which could cause offence or upset to others.

Suitable topics to use in selecting a news story for Candidates at each level can be found in Section 5: Unit Specification, below.

3.4.4 Presentation of Book

The Book (Spoken TIE A1-B1 and Spoken and Written TIE B2-C2)
Task	Presentation / discussion on a book or graded reader (both A1-B1 and B2-C2 Spoken TIE) and Writing about the book (B2-C2 Written TIE only)

The other Candidate is asked to listen, comment and ask at least two questions of their own. At B2-C2, Candidates are also expected to be able to write about the book in the Written TIE.
Materials	The book
Sample questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Please tell us something about the most interesting character in the book. • Please describe the most interesting moment in the story. • Please tell us your favourite part of the story and why you liked it. • Tell us, what message from the book would you like to share with others?

Preparation Guidance for Teachers and Candidates

- What materials are needed?

Candidates can choose a book on any topic they prefer (not a magazine or course book) and they should be encouraged to select the book in plenty of time before the examination session, to allow as much time as possible for reading and preparation. Where Candidates find it difficult to select a suitable book, a teacher may provide them with one, or provide them with a choice of pre-selected titles. This may be more appropriate at the A1-B1 levels, where Graded Readers can be supplied.

- How can Candidates prepare for the examination with their book in class?

Candidates should be encouraged to bring their book into class and be prepared to speak about it, alongside listening to other Candidates practising their own presentations, in order to comment on and ask the other Candidates a number of questions.

Candidates preparing for the B2-C2 TIE should also be encouraged to practice writing about the book and to practise writing the answers to others' questions.

Many books are also available as audio books, which Candidates may find useful to listen to. Similarly, if a film of the book is available, Candidates should be encouraged to watch it. Listening to audios or watching films of a book may encourage and enable some Candidates to choose a book to read that is above their level, although please note, this does not exempt them from reading the book.

Candidates are not assessed on the accuracy of their knowledge of the book content; they are assessed on how well they use their language skills in the book related tasks.

- How can Candidates practise with their book in class?

Candidates need to practise presenting their book for at least two minutes and to answer questions from the Interlocutor and other Candidates. They should therefore listen to other Candidates practising their book presentations and practise asking questions.

Candidates may cover a range of relevant content in their presentation, such as the plot of the book, characters, the ending, the type of story, any images on the cover of the book etc.

- Good Practice

Candidates should be encouraged to consider reading their book as a 'reading for pleasure' activity. Teachers may start to prepare Candidates from the beginning of their course of study by incorporating reading for pleasure into the classwork and homework, practising presentations about books of interest and promoting discussions about books, stories, and other types of reading texts throughout the programme. In this way, Candidates may have many books to choose from and are more motivated to talk about a book they have found interesting.

- What should be avoided?

Teachers should not permit a whole class to use the same book.

Candidates and teachers should be reminded that the examinations are taken with Candidates in pairs and the Candidates may not necessarily know each other. They should therefore be mindful to choose an appropriate book which does not contain sensitive images, events or content which could cause offence or upset to others.

Suitable topics and subject areas to consider in selecting a book for Candidates at each level can be found in Section 5: Unit Specification, below.

3.4.5 Describing Photographs

The Photo Task (Spoken TIE A1-B1 only)

At levels A1 – B1, this step of the examination consists of completing a form.

Candidates should be encouraged to learn how to complete simple and more complex forms. A variety of form types may appear (e.g. survey form, an application form, an enquiry form).

Candidates should practice following standard instructions on forms to record their personal information accurately (name, date of birth, address, telephone number, etc.) and practise writing some simple sentences about their likes, dislikes, daily life and experience.

The final section of the form allows opportunities for Candidates at the higher level of the band (i.e. A2 and B1) to provide more detailed answers to questions relating to the purpose of the form (2-3 sentence answers).

Teachers may wish to create their own forms for Candidates to practise, or use a range of authentic forms where these are available in English. Forms on English-language websites can also provide a good source of practice items for Candidates to practice completing in class.

At levels B2 – C2, this step of the examination consists of producing writing based on the book / news story they had prepared.

Candidates should be encouraged to learn how to structure and present the following types of writing: emails, letters, essays, articles and reviews.

Candidates should practise presenting a brief (a maximum of 50 words) summary of the book and the news story they had read in preparation, and also answer a number of questions based on those two forms, for example present a description of the characters in the book or propose an alternative ending, or describe what they have learnt from reading the news story or explain why the content of that article is / is not significant to a particular group of readers.

Candidates who do not attempt the task or produce a response that is shorter than 100 words will be awarded a DNF.

Teachers may wish to create their own sample tasks for Candidates to practice.

A DNF (Did Not Fulfill requirements) rating is also awarded to a candidate in the following situations:

- The Candidate has produced work which is not his/her own and covers a significant proportion of their produced texts
- The Candidate has produced work that does not meet the requirements for authenticity and the assessment outcome seems not valid. The candidate will be given the opportunity to resit the part of the examination where they have been awarded a DNF

Preparation Guidance for Teachers and Candidates

Candidates should practice writing a range of texts in class, including letters and emails, postcards and notes at the lower levels, and letters, essays, articles and reviews at the higher levels.

The types of written texts can be integrated into reading and writing activities in classwork and homework throughout the course of study, to enable Candidates to become familiar with the text types, common formats and standard phrasing and grammar expected in texts of differing levels of formality. The functions of writing should also be practiced: writing to describe, give information, give advice, thank someone, complain, give opinions, etc. can all be practiced in classwork and homework, integrated into the programme of study.

Candidates should be encouraged to practice writing a range of texts to express different functions, on topics appropriate for the level they are working at. Suitable topics and functions for each level are listed in Section 5: Unit Specification, below.

Section 4: Qualification Delivery, Assessment Procedure and Certification

4.1 Registering Candidates

All registrations of Candidates and examination session bookings must be made on the Ark, the Gatehouse Awards learner management system. User accounts are provided only to approved Examinations Officers to allow access to the system.

Examination sessions must be booked a minimum of two days prior to the proposed examination date.

Detailed information relating to the registration and exam booking procedures can be found in the Ark Guide and FAQ published on the Gatehouse Awards website.

4.2 ID Requirements

It is the responsibility of each Gatehouse Awards Approved Centre to have systems in place to ensure that the person taking any Gatehouse Awards qualification is indeed the person they are purporting to be. All Centres are therefore required to ensure that each Candidate's original formal identification documents are checked and recorded prior to registration and copies remain in the Centre's files. Centres are required to keep copies of the photographic ID in their records for a minimum of 2 years.

Candidates must bring their identification documents on the day of the examination and the individual responsible for the co-ordination of the examination sessions must check each Candidate's ID to confirm their identity. Candidates attending without sufficient proof of their identity must not be permitted to take an examination.

A copy of the identification document must be taken and included in the submission package which is returned to Gatehouse Awards containing all examination materials.

4.3 Assessment Materials

Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English qualifications are assessed via Gatehouse Awards-issued and marked assessment papers which are completed by Candidates under controlled examination conditions.

The assessment materials for paper-based exams will be made available to the authorised Examinations Officer by secure courier, or via secure online access on the scheduled assessment date. Materials accessed online must be printed by the Centre. All assessment materials must be stored securely and only handed to Candidates immediately prior to the commencement of the examination.

Assessment materials will be clearly marked to enable Examination Officers to confirm that the version of assessment materials is correct for the Candidate / cohort of Candidates, as appropriate. Specific versions of examination materials for use will be issued for each scheduled session.

Examination Materials for these qualifications consist of:

- Interlocutor Booklet
- Interlocutor Materials for the Spoken TIE (Photo Task)
- Candidate Booklet – Written TIE examination paper
- Candidate Logbook Template
- Candidate Instructions and Declaration

For the Spoken TIE examination, an audio recording is made and submitted to Gatehouse Awards via the secure online portal.

All paper-based and online examination materials, as well as copies of the audio recordings, must be uploaded onto the Gatehouse Awards online portal within a maximum of two working days of the assessment.

Should a Centre wish to return the assessment materials via postal service, prior agreement must be sought from Gatehouse Awards. In such cases, the assessment materials must be despatched within a maximum of 2 working days using a secure courier.

Examination papers are NOT assessed by Centre staff or by the Gatehouse Awards Examination Observers (where present).

All records of Candidate's papers, recordings, videos and copies of their identification documents will be kept securely by Gatehouse Awards for a minimum period of 5 years.

4.4 Candidate to Interlocutor / Invigilator Ratios

The Spoken TIE examinations are conducted with only the Candidates and the Interlocutor present.

It is possible for trainee Interlocutors and/or internal quality assurance managers to be present in the room; however Gatehouse Awards strongly recommends that the number of people present in the examination room is kept to a minimum. Any additional personnel must be declared on the Examination Report Form, and they must state their name at the appropriate point in the script.

The Written TIE examinations at all levels must be invigilated by a trained Invigilator. The minimum ratio of Invigilators per Candidates is 1:14. This means that an Invigilator can supervise no more than 14 Candidates.

The Invigilator must have a means of communicating with another member of staff also trained in the invigilation procedure and present on the premises, should their assistance be required in an emergency situation. The Invigilator should be able to summon their assistance without leaving the examination room.

For online exams, the minimum ratio of Invigilators per Candidates is 1:8 for Written TIE. Written TIE exams will also be supervised by a technical support assistant.

4.5 Conducting Assessments

In order to conduct the TIE examinations, Interlocutors and Invigilators must be adequately trained to carry out their role in the delivery of regulated qualifications.

The Interlocutor and Invigilator must adhere to the provided instructions throughout the examination session(s).

An Interlocutor and Invigilator's Handbook is available containing further guidance for those carrying out these roles. For online exams, the TIE Online Protocol is available for further guidance.

The Spoken TIE examination at all levels must be conducted with two or three Candidates present, with only the Candidates and Interlocutor engaging in the assessment tasks.

The Written TIE examination at all levels may be conducted on a one-to-one basis or with a group of Candidates in one session. Examinations with a cohort of Candidates must only be held in a room which meets the minimum requirements as listed in the published Gatehouse Awards document Regulations for Conducting Controlled Examinations.

The timings provided for all examinations must be adhered to.

All examinations must be conducted at the venue indicated at the time of booking. Any recordings or papers submitted to Gatehouse Awards where the Interlocutor, Invigilator, Examinations Officer or any other person with responsibility for the administration and organisation of the examination session has not followed the regulations provided may be considered a form of maladministration. Please refer to the Gatehouse Awards Malpractice and Maladministration Policy for further details.

4.5.1 Spoken Test of Interactive English Examinations

The Interlocutor and Invigilator's Handbook provides full guidance for the conduct of the Spoken test. An audio recording must be made as a record of the Candidate's performance in these tasks. Where a video-recording is a requirement, the Centre will be notified at the time of (or prior to) examination session booking.

Printed Candidate Materials must only be provided to the Candidate at the appropriate point indicated in the Interlocutor and Invigilator's Handbook.

At all levels, Candidates are examined in pairs or in a group of three. Every effort should be made to ensure that Candidates are examined in pairs or groups where all Candidates have a similar level of English.

In the unlikely scenario where there is only a single Candidate in a given examination session (for example, a re-sit), a second person must take part, for example a Candidate who has already taken the test previously. In order to ensure that the single Candidate is not disadvantaged in such a scenario, the other participant should have a similar level of English.

Interlocutors should clearly identify on the audio recording any Candidate who is not being assessed in the task.

4.5.2 Written Test of Interactive English Examinations

The Written TIE examinations consist of paper-based or online assessments. Paper based assessments must be kept securely and provided to the Candidate only at the commencement of the examination session. Instructions appear on the cover of the printed materials.

The examination times should be adhered to for the Written TIE examinations. Please see Section 4 below for a detailed overview of the assessment contents.

Where groups of Candidates are taking the Written TIE examinations together, the ratio of Candidates to Invigilator must not exceed 14 to 1.

For online exams, the examination is conducted on the TIE examination app. The examination will become available to candidates only on commencement of the examination session. Instructions appear on the screen. The same times and conditions will be adhered to as in a live session.

4.6 Submission and Record Keeping

All materials must be kept securely at all times. Once completed, examination materials must be submitted electronically to Gatehouse Awards for assessment. All paper-based records must be kept in a physically secure storage area such as a locked filing cabinet. Audio recordings should be kept either on discs or storage devices physically, or as MP3 audio files, and securely stored electronically, such as in a password protected folder. Centres should also have sufficient processes in place to ensure the back up of all records.

Any records of Reasonable Adjustments, Special Considerations and records containing Candidate's personal details must be held in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

All records must be kept for a minimum period of two years, be easily retrievable, and made accessible to Gatehouse Awards or the Regulator upon request.

4.7 Marking, Assessment and Overall Assessment Decisions

The examinations will be marked and graded by the Gatehouse Awards team of Test of Interactive English Examiners.

The assessment will give the Candidate a grading reflecting the level they have achieved in each examination. Examiners are trained to assess the Candidate's performance based on specified criteria, mapped to the Common European Framework of reference for languages (CEFR).

In the Spoken TIE, Candidates are assessed on their skills across the following categories:

- Aural Reception / Listening
- Interaction skills
- Communicative Effectiveness
- Grammatical Accuracy and Complexity
- Lexical Range and Appropriacy
- Phonological Control

In the Written TIE, Candidates are assessed on their skills across the following categories:

- Visual Reception
- Production and Text Organisation
- Task Achievement
- Grammatical Accuracy and Complexity
- Lexical Range and Appropriacy
- Orthographic Control and Punctuation

The Test of Interactive English qualifications views language ability as a composite of a number of underlying sub-skills. Control of these sub-skills may vary within each individual, resulting in what is known as a 'jagged language profile'.

The Test of Interactive English therefore allows for Assessors to award a '+' grade, e.g. 'A2+' or 'B2+', to Candidates who consistently demonstrate consolidated and established skills at the level awarded throughout the examination. The '+' grade may also indicate that the Candidate is demonstrating some emerging skills at the next level.

The qualification certificate will clearly show the overall qualification level awarded, as well as the levels achieved in each unit. The unit grades will be displayed using half-level grades where applicable.

4.8 Results and Certification

Once Centres have submitted the examination materials, all examination papers and recordings are assessed by the Gatehouse Awards Test of Interactive English Examiners. The Candidate is assigned a grade reflecting the level they have achieved, a 'fail' notification or a result of DNF (Did Not Fulfil test requirements).

In the UK, standard examination assessment results and certificates are issued within 10 working days of the receipt of a full and correct submission of examination materials.

Outside the UK, the timescales when results and certificates will be issued may vary from country to country and from Centre to Centre. This will be agreed with the Centre at the time of Qualification Approval. Overseas Centres are responsible for informing Candidates of the relevant results and certification timescales. Candidates should refer directly to the overseas Centre or the overseas Gatehouse Awards Representative to access this information in-country.

For results enquiries, all Centres are asked to contact their named Gatehouse Awards Centre Administrator. Such enquiries should only be submitted in instances where the timescales for issuing results and certificates as outlined above have been exceeded.

Candidates enquiring about their own results should contact their Centre or the relevant Gatehouse Awards Representative, only in instances where the timescales for issuing results and certificates as outlined above have been exceeded.

Certificates will only be issued to Candidates who achieve both a Spoken TIE and Written TIE result at, or above, the minimum level of the test taken. B1 certificates can be issued upon request to eligible Candidates.

If a Candidate has failed one examination and achieved in the other examination, a Notification of Results will be issued informing the Candidate of which units they have achieved / not achieved.

Unit certificates for individual units can be issued on request.

4.9 Enquiries and Appeals

Gatehouse Awards operates an Appeals Policy and Procedures in accordance with the arrangements for regulated qualifications.

Centres wishing to appeal against any decision or action which arises from external assessment and/or moderation activity should do so in line with the content of the Gatehouse Awards Appeals Policy and Procedures.

4.10 Examination Retakes

A Candidate who is assessed as not having achieved the qualification or a unit should be advised to wait until they have progressed to a sufficient degree before they retake the examination.

Candidates who retake either the Spoken or Written TIE will be provided with different assessment materials to those used previously. These will be made available on the Gatehouse Awards online system, accessible to authorised Centre staff.

4.11 Ongoing Support

There are a number of documents on the Gatehouse Awards website that Centres and Candidates may find useful: www.gatehouseawards.org

The website is updated regularly with news, information about all Gatehouse Awards qualifications, sample examination materials, updates on regulations and other important notices for Centres and Candidates.

Within the Centre, a named Examinations Officer is responsible for ensuring that all information and documents provided to Centre staff and Candidates are correct and up to date.

Gatehouse Awards must be kept up to date with contact details so Centres can be provided with the best level of support and guidance. Contact details for Gatehouse Awards are:

Gatehouse Awards Ltd

Address: G5, Woodhead House, Woodhead Rd, Birstall, Batley WF17 9TD

Email: info@gatehouseawards.org

Web: www.gatehouseawards.org

In addition, at the time of approval, Centres are assigned a designated Centre Administrator who is their primary point of contact for all aspects of service or support. Candidates should always speak to a member of staff at the Centre for information relating to Gatehouse Awards and the Test of Interactive English qualifications prior to approaching Gatehouse Awards directly.

Topics and Text Types at A1

- Family Life
- Hobbies and Pastimes
- Personal details / experiences
- Holidays and Leisure Activities
- Shopping
- Work and Jobs
- Health
- Education and Training
- Services
- Weather and the Environment
- Transport

At this level, Candidates are expected to read and understand short texts with repeated language patterns on these familiar topics.

The types of texts Candidates need to read will depend on their reasons for reading, e.g. employment, college course, childcare, enjoyment.

The following are examples of words a Candidate would typically be expected to be able to read, write and use at this level:

Personal Key Words

- Country of origin, e.g. The United Arab Emirates, Brazil, Mozambique

Written Work

In written work at this level, Candidates are expected to write to communicate information to an intended audience in documents such as:

- Forms
- Lists
- Notes and simple messages
- Simple letters

Spelling

Candidates should be able to recognise the basic sound–symbol relationships and common letter patterns in words that are of real interest to them as individuals, working from a context. The order in which these sounds and patterns will be taught will depend on the words learners want and need to write.

Learners whose first language does not have the same phonemes as English will have difficulty in recognising the sound and therefore the associated symbol. Establishing a good knowledge of the alphabet and print awareness is essential at this level to enable the learner to begin independent sound-blending, both in written and phonic form.

Phonics (sound–letter correspondence):

- Recognise initial, middle and final consonants
- Recognise consonant digraphs ch, sh, the
- Recognise medial short vowel sounds in simple words, e.g. Hat
- Write correct initial letters in response to the letter sound, word, object or picture
- Recognise and name each letter of the alphabet and be aware of alphabetical order
- Write final consonants in simple words, e.g. Shop
- Write correct letter corresponding to short middle vowel sounds in simple words, e.g. Hat

Patterns

Some suggestions for taking common patterns from texts learners want or need to write:

“I live in Southwark. Southwark is in south London. I live in a big house.”

Other words with ou – our, four, pour. Learners are encouraged to group the words visually, and/or by sound.

Spelling

It is important for ESOL learners to be able to recognise the sound–symbol relationship and common letter patterns in words that are of real interest to them as individuals, working from a context. The order in which these sounds and patterns will be taught will depend on the words learners want and need to write.

Learners whose first language does not have the same phonemes as English will have difficulty in recognising the sound and therefore the associated symbol. Building on the sound-symbol relationships already learned, common letter combinations correlating to the phonics below should be practised in spelling, paying attention to the initial and final positions of common letter combinations in the spelling of the words.

Phonics:

At this level, learners should recognise and use a wider range of phonics:

- Initial common clusters: bl (black), br (brown), cl (close), cr (cream), dr (drink), fl (fly), fr (friend), gl (glass), gr (grill), pl (place), pr (Prime Minister), scr (scream), sk (skin), sl (sleep), sm (smile), sp (spell), squ (squash), st (stop), str (street), tr (train), tw (twins), thr (through)
- Common final clusters: ct (fact), ft (lift), ld (build), lt (melt), nch (lunch), lth (health), nd (second), nt (sent), lk (milk), lp (help), mp (lamp), nk (think), rd (heard), sk (task), sp (crisp), st (first) xt (next)
- Vowel digraphs: ee (feet), ea (seat), oo (moon), u–e (tune), ew (flew), ue (blue)
- Diphthongs: ie (lie), ai (train), a–e (name), ay (play), i–e (bite), igh (high), y (fly), ow (cow), ou (sound)

Word Structure:

At this level, learners should recognise and use:

- Letter patterns common in English, e.g.: tion (station)
- Silent letters, e.g. lght (light), wr (write), ould (could), lk (talk)
- Prefixes and suffixes, e.g. Un (unhappy), re (return), less (helpless)
- Structural endings, e.g. Plural s, ed (walked), ing (cooking)

Appendix 1 Access to Assessment: Special Considerations and Reasonable Adjustments

The Gatehouse Awards assessment materials are designed to be inclusive, non-discriminatory and as accessible as possible. Gatehouse Awards adhere to these principles throughout the development of all qualifications and throughout the writing of assessment and examination materials. Please note the differing definitions of Reasonable Adjustment and a Special Consideration, as outlined in the Gatehouse Awards Candidate Access Policy document (available on the www.gatehouseawards.org website) and within the Glossary of Terms, Appendix 2, below.

Centre staff need to ensure that any requests for reasonable adjustments where prior authorisation from Gatehouse Awards is required are submitted in good time prior to the assessment date, otherwise the Candidate may have to re-take the assessment. Such requests should be communicated to Gatehouse Awards by submitting a Request for Reasonable Adjustment Form (available to download from the Gatehouse Awards website) a minimum of 10 working days prior to the date of the examination.

Candidates requesting reasonable adjustments must provide their Centre with evidence of their medical condition or learning needs and a copy of this must be provided to Gatehouse Awards along with the request form. These must also be made available upon request as part of external quality assurance activities.

Candidates attending at independent test venues must contact Gatehouse Awards directly, or the Gatehouse Awards Representative overseas, with evidence of their medical condition or learning needs to discuss the reasonable adjustments available to them.
